The Bulletin

The Bulletin comes out this year in a somewhat reduced form. Had we kept to last year's size and weight, the cost of postage would have been doubled. We hope that those who use the Bulletin will consider that the saving justifies the change.

Packing of Parcels

On a number of occasions books returned to the Library have been so seriously damaged in the post that they have had to be rebound. In most cases the damage would have been prevented if the reader had packed the return parcel adequately.

May we take this opportunity to press on readers that one sheet of paper is not enough even for smaller books by packet post (and these should have plenty of overlap at the open ends). Larger books should not be posted without at least one thickness of corrugated cardboard in addition to other wrappings.

Another Postal Matter

We have noticed recently that sometimes letters posted in Midland and Northern towns in the late afternoon have not reached the Library until the midday delivery the next day. As the day's parcels from the Library have to be despatched soon after midday, a whole day may be lost in answering a request for a book. There is little we can do about it except to advise posting early, especially if a book is wanted "by return".

Books not Immediately Available

We should like to draw readers' attention to another smaller matter. When a book that is asked for is out on loan, a reader is normally notified when it becomes available on return from another reader. But this may be several weeks after the original request, and by that time the book may be no longer wanted or it may have been obtained from some other source. It would be helpful if, in making the first request, a word is added to say if the book will not be needed unless it can be sent immediately or in a few days. By this means a certain amount of correspondence can be saved.

Gifts to the Library

The Library is indebted to the Wallace Alfred Smith Trust for a gift of £50 towards its work.

The Library is also indebted for gifts of books from: the Rev. James L. Ainslie (per Messrs. Freer, Muir and Smart), Dr. E. L. Allen, Mrs. J. Forsyth Andrews, Professor D. Heinrich Bornkamm, Mr. G. C. Bosanquet, Rev. R. H. Bradshaw, Dr. T. A. Burkill, Dr. S. W. Carruthers, Miss L. E. Crowdy, Rev. Roderic Dunkerley, Miss Joan Elliot, Rev. J. D. C. Microfilms

During the year microfilms of certain manuscripts not in the keeping of the Library have been added to the microfilm collection. These are microfilms of what are known as the Exeter Assembly Minutes from 1655 to 1659 and from 1721 to 1753. Another microfilm is of the Minutes of the "Committee of Thirteen" (Exeter) from 1724 to 1762, and also their accounts from 1708 to 1761. These, like other microfilms, are available on loan to research workers. A loan microfilm copy of the Baxter Letters in the Library's collection of Manuscripts is in preparation.

Trustees

The vacancy caused by the death of Mr. W. S. Sharpe has been filled by the appointment of the Rev. Wilfred Waddington.

Deputy-Librarian	Miss INEZ R. ELLIOTT, A.L.A.

The Trust includes a number of benefactions for which the founder, the Rev. Daniel Williams, D.D. (b. 1643, d. 1716), made provision in his will. The most important of these is now the Library, which has been greatly enlarged and developed since his time.

Besides the Library, the benefactions include grants of money to poor ministers, and to widows of ministers; grants of books to ministers; bursaries for undergraduate students for the Protestant Dissenting Ministry at the University of Glasgow; post-graduate divinity scholarships for students for the Protestant Dissenting Ministry in approved Theological Colleges.

The Trustees also give bursaries and scholarships to be held at the Presbyterian College, Carmarthen. They contribute to the maintenance of the Dr. Williams' School for Girls (Secondary) at Dolgelley, North Wales. For information as to the institutions named in this paragraph, applications should be made to them locally, and not to the Secretary of the Trust.

GRANTS TO DISSENTING MINISTERS.—Sums ranging usually from £10 to £20 not in aid of inadequate salaries, but to meet special emergencies or to help in education of children. Retired ministers are not eligible.

Part postage is also paid in suitable cases on books borrowed from the Library by country readers who are nonconformist ministers. Further particulars may be obtained on application.

GRANTS TO WIDOWS OF MINISTERS.—These are made for the same purposes as those to ministers.

GRANTS OF BOOKS (called in the founder's will "Bibles and good practical books to be given to the poor").—These grants are made only in June of each year. Applications may be made at any time up to the middle of April in each year; if any grant is made the books are sent out in the following July. The books given are intended to help ministers in their studies. They are new books, and are not given from the Library.

GLASGOW BURSARIES (Undergraduate) tenable at Glasgow University up to the value of £150 per annum for 3 or 4 years.—Prospectus forwarded on application. Candidates must be of South Britain. Applications for Bursaries must be sent in not later than March 1st in each year.

DIVINITY SCHOLARSHIPS of the value of £150 per annum for 2 years tenable at any approved Theological College or University.—Application before June 1st each year. Prospectus may be obtained on application to the Secretary.

For all the foregoing, inquiries must be made of the SECRETARY, Dr. Williams's Trust, who will supply further information as required.

FRIENDS OF DR. WILLIAMS'S LIBRARY

Support for Dr. Williams's Library is urgently needed. Post-war costs have made it impossible to maintain an adequate library service without additional resources, and the facilities offered by the Library for research students have long stood in need of development. To meet these needs the FRIENDS OF DR. WILLIAMS'S LIBRARY was founded in 1946, and the society invites all who are interested to collaborate in its work.

Full particulars together with forms for the payment of subscriptions by Banker's Order and under Deed of Covenant may be had on application from the Secretary at the Library.
